Whereas, a Show Cause Notice was issued to the candidate vide No.SSB/COE/2022/491-495 dated 30.08.2022 to explain her position. Ankita Bhagat submitted her response to the SCN issued and;

Whereas, the reply of the candidate was examined in light of the extant regulations and placed in the Board for deliberations. The Board, in its 213rd meeting held on 10.11.2022 deliberated the matter and taking note of fact that the candidate had consciously appeared in the same examination twice, besides having applied twice for the same examination by quoting separate contact number as well as separate e-mail Id, decided as under:

"The Board after the detailed deliberations noted that in terms of Jammu and Kashmir Services Selection Board (Conduct of Examinations) Regulations, 2013, Part XXV- Unfair Means, Section 27 (e), the Candidate resorted to unfair means as she furnished incorrect information regarding her name in two different application forms and then obtained admission/appeared twice in the said examination based on two different Admit cards for which only Single Computer Based Written Test was to be conducted. Accordingly, Board decided to fail the said candidate in the examination for submitting false information on the basis of which she had appeared twice for the said examination inspite of having full knowledge that the candidate had to appear only once for the said examination for the post of Junior Assistants etc conducted in CBT mode. Further, Board decided that in order to keep check and deterrence on candidates that no such activities occurs in future, the said candidate be debarred from appearing in any examination conducted by JKSSB for a period of one year from the date of the occurrence of the said incident(offence) i.e. 24.01.2022. The candidate shall be treated as 'Fail' in any examination where she appeared during this period".
